

Contractor Registration

Requirements for registration of contractors:

- The contractor must be in good standing in the community
- The contractor registration and permit may be denied or revoked if Contractor has a history of poor performance and continued violations of City codes or State or Federal laws
- The permit may be denied or revoked in order to protect the general health and welfare of the public
- The contractor registration may be denied or revoked in order to protect the general health and welfare of the public.